

I am outraged by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is an abuse of a public resource.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. We need badly to restore the fairness doctrine. The media need to be held accountable for their licenses.

Thank you.
